Data collaboration webinar poll results

1. I think data sharing can help deliver better outcomes for communities because it offers:

A shared understanding and storytelling in the community	(4) 11%
Greater transparency about what is working (and	(6) 17%
More confidence in decision making as knowledge gaps are filled	(10) 29%
An evidence base for asking better questions	(4) 11%
The community a more powerful voice	(0) 0%
Better decision making and prioritisation for programs and services	(11) 31%
The ability to Influence Government policy makers and funders	(0) 0%
The chance to bust the myths about our community	(0) 0%

1. I think the challenges to data sharing would be:

Unwillingness to share because "it's our data"	(3) 13%
Not allowed to share because of privacy concerns	(10) 43%
Unable to share because we don't have infrastructure to share safely and securely	(6) 26%
No time and low level of skills in organisations	(4) 17%

Seer Data & Analytics